Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114.

Applicant's submission filed on November 06, 2006 has been entered.

Information Disclosure Statement

No further IDSs after the one filed on September , 22, 2005 have been filed in this case.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-24 have been allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art taken either singularly or in combination fails to anticipate or fairly suggest the limitation of the dependent claims, in such manner that a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 102 or 103 would be proper. The applied prior art fails to teach a combination of all the claimed features as presented in independent claims (1 and 11) including "etching the first inter-layer insulation layer to define a trench between the bit line patterns, so that at least a partial portion of the first inter-layer insulation layer remains below the trench and over the first barrier layer between the bit line patterns, wherein a portion of the first barrier layer provided below the trench and between the bit line patterns is not exposed by the etching-the-first-inter- layer-insulation-layer step (emphasis added)," recited in claim 1 and "forming first and second bit line patterns that defines a first trench there between..." and "etching the first inter-layer insulation layer until a second trench is defined between the first and second bit line patterns without exposing the first barrier layer provided between the first and second bit line patterns as recited in claim 11.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
